

ADJUNCT APPOINTMENTS

The Office of the Provost of Central Michigan University extends adjunct faculty appointments upon the recommendation of a department and with the support of the appropriate dean. Individuals receiving such appointments may come from outside the University community or hold appointment at CMU. During an adjunct appointment, an individual also may serve as a temporary faculty member.

Adjunct appointments are non-compensatory and are extended at the rank consistent with the credentials and experience of the individual. A continuing adjunct appointment may be extended to an individual employed in a non-temporary capacity at the University. The initial appointment for others is limited to one year. Thereafter, appointments may be granted for terms not to exceed three years.

Office of the Provost: 1996